Beat the J. A. C.'s While Portuguese Take Measure of the Hawaiians in Close Game—Joy in Form

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Stars, 5; J. A. C., 1.
P. A. C., 8; Hawaii, 7.
Asahi, Sunday off.

The Stars had a rather easy time of it with their old and hated rivals, the J. A. C.'s, in the opener of yesterday's double header at Athletic Park. Five to one was the final score when the dust cleared, and Barney Joy went home with a smile that was as wide as one of his benders.

Barney has himself rather than his support to thank for the win, for the Stars made more serious errors than their opponents made hits. There was some distressingly loose playing in several of the frames, but Barney kept his head, and used it as well as his arm to mow down the opposition. Besides this, he garnered two of the eight hits made by the Stars.

Clarke started the box work for the J. A. C.'s and was touched for seven hits in six innings. Then he was benched in place of Tony Madellos, who finished the game with the loss of only a single hit. The damage was done, however, and the Stars were once again at the top of the percentage table.

The second game between the Portuguese and Hawaiians was a close and interesting battle, which went to the former team in the final frame. First one side and then the other was ahead, and the fans had plenty of thrills for their money, and voted it one of the best games of the season to watch.

The Hawaiians should have batted in a victory, for they got 11 hits as against 8 for their opponents, but an almost unbelievable string of errors spoiled their chances of success. Several of the Portuguese runs were presents from their opponents. The Hawaiians knocked Freitas out of the box in the sixth inning, and after one man was down in the seventh he retired in favor of Bushnell. He was tight with hits and saved the game.

Yesterday's Games.

Asahi, 13; J. A. C., 3.

C. A. U., 6; Athletics, 5.

Whites' Sunday off.

Yesterday's games in the Junior League were disappointing from a baseball standpoint, the class of play being way below that usually put up by the younger organization.

The Asahis walked all over the J. A. C.'s to the tune of 13 to 3, in a very ragged game, while the C. A. U.'s were content with a one-run margin over the Athletics, winning out in the ninth inning.

C COMPANY WINNER OF EAST BALL GAME ON THE KAM FIELD

The best ball game of the company series was played Saturday afternoon on the Kam field between C and B, the latter winning by a 2 to 1 score.

For eight frames Oppunt blanked the C batters, while the Bs gathered only a single run off G. Bush's delivery, this coming in the third inning. Then in the first half of the ninth C company struck a batting rally that brought two runs across and won the game. G. Bush drew a pass and Kalleiali, who followed, made good with a slashing tripple, coming home on a hit to center by Hipa.
